MONDAY ..... DECEMBER 28, 1874

Letter from Petersburg. [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] PETERSBURG, December 26, 1874. Christmas was observed here yesterday with more than customary conviviality and clamor. During the entire day the streets were thronged with large crowds, and the air was filled with the booming of fire-works and the discordant sounds of tin-horns. Nearly all the bar-rooms closed at an early hour, notwithstanding which there was an abundance of spirits affoat, and the police found work enough in preserving order. A large number of fights occurred, but only two or three of sufficient consequence to

Robert Slaughter, a negro, cut Mr. William Early in the left arm with a knife because that gentleman tapped him upon the shoulder and ventured a jesting remark. Slaugh ter will appear before the Mayor on Monday

A shooting affair, which may result fatally occurred on Carter street, in the Sixth Ward, selween Douglas Ellis and Abraham Mack oth colored. It seems that Ellis invited Mack to his house to partake of Christmas e'reshments, and the parties ate and drank together for some time upon apparently the most friendly terms. Under the inspiration of the liquor Ellis picked up a musket and warned Mack that he was going to shoot hint. "Ellis, you don't mean to shoot me, exclaimed Mack. The words do you?" were searcely out of his mouth when the musket exploded, either intentionally or accidentally, and the load entered Mack's abdomen. Ellis immediately went to the station-house and surrendered himself to the authorities.

A negro desperado named Henry Butler cut Mr. C. E. Hughes in the hand on Bolling brook street. When the police attempted to arrest him he fought desperately, knock ing several men down, and finally had to be clubbed violently before subdued. The Mayor sent him on this morning for malicious cutting, granting bail in the sum of

On Thursday night last two negroes, John Bell and Emanuel Jones, confined in the Prince George juil, made their escape by is; burning a hole through the floor of the lower room in which they were lodged, and who, it is supposed, picked a hole through the outer world in the rear of the jail. John Bell is a mu'atto, and was confined for wife-beating, not being able to give a bond of fifty dollars to keep the peace for the space of six months, as required by Justice A. R. Shands. He was for some time JET JEWELRY, employed in Mr. Venable's tobacco-factory. in this city, and is believed to have been the pstigrator and principal in the breaking out other prisoner, Emanuel Jones, who escaped, was a boy about sixteen years old. He was contined for petit larceny, and was awaiting the execution of a sentence of thirty-nine lashes. His time would have expired on Tuesday. In the same room was confined a colored man named Davy Jones, who was imprisoned in default of security to keep the peace. He refused to leave, and the jailor found him in the room, though he had every opportunity to escape. While the other two were burning the floor Davy Jones attempted to give the alarm, but was set upon and threatened with his life if he lead not keep quiet.

Offers a full assortment of NEW GOODS, which, by late purchases, will be found choice in style and reduced in price. Two hundred and fifty PANT MERES—check, stripe, mixtures, and plain. Two hundred and fifty VEST PATTERNS—slik, cashmere, velvet, mailassea, and valentia.

FOR DRESS-WEAR:

COLORED CLOTHS and BEAVERS, ENGLISH WORSTED COATINGS, CLOTHS and DOE-SKINS, all of which will be made up in the best manner. confined a colored man named Davy Jones, did not keep quiet. John Bell is supposed to be now in Peters burg. All of these prisoners were, until a few days ago, confined in a room with Harry Allen, who is awaiting a new trial, granted him at the last term of the Circuit Court, on the charge of burning an oat-stack. While room Bell proposed to Allen to escape, or attempt to do so, in the manner that he finally put in execution. The plan was at that time frustrated by Bell's being put in another cell. This was told by Allen when it was too late to do any good. The roof of Harrison & Co.'s clothing-ouse, on Sycamore street, took fire this afternoon, but was extinguished before serious damage resulted. There were six transfers of real estate during the past week.

A telegram was received in this city to-day by the father of Charley Edwards, who was ot in Norfolk Thursday night, summoning han to that city at once, and advising him to be prepared for the worst. Mr. Edwards was ill, and did not reach the train in time. Charley is a native of this place. ROBIN ADAIR.

Louisa Courthouse. Va., ? December 26, 1874. Last night there was a Christmas-tree a the Methodist church. The choir sung two pretty pieces, and Mr. Murray, the superinendent of the Sunday school, made a few remarks, and then the gifts were distributed. here were some very handsome presents on tree-one fine gold watch, and many valuable presents. Mr. Murray's lible-class presented him with a beautiful silver butter-stand. There was a larger crowd than there ever was in the Methodist

Grange Officers Elected. [For the Dispatch.]

GOLD HILL, VA., December 19, 1874. At a regular meeting of Gold Hill Grange, o. 179, held at the Masonic Hall in this ace on Saturday, December 19, 1874, the llowing officers were elected for the ensuing year: E. T. Page, master; S. W. Brown, server; P. B. Ambler, lecturer; J. C. lanes, chaplain; R. C. Nicholas, steward; . M. Goodman, assistant steward; William M. Hail, secretary; R. B. Hudgins, treasurer; Mrs. S. S. Hudgins, Ceres; Mrs. Ida F. Brown, Pomona; Mrs. M. L. Adams, Flora; W. M. Carter, gatekeeper; Mrs. M. E. Brown, lady assistant steward. We had a very interesting meeting and one initiation. It is hoped the movement will do much good, as it is greatly needed to stir up our farmers to greater diligence in their SECRETARY.

Fire in Weldon.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] Weldon, N. C., December 25, 1874. A fire occurred in this town last night at 11 o'clock, by which the entire stock of general merchandise of Messrs. Harris & Co. was destroyed. The goods were estimated to be worth about $4,000. The parties are said to be amply insured in several compatiles, among which are the Farmville and Such an extent that it was thought for some time the entire town, which consists of wooden tenements, would be destroyed. But fortunately the night was an unpassage of the control of the fortunately the night was an unusually calm one, and by tearing away several small buildings adjoining, and free use of blankets and water, the fire was prevented from spreading. There was no insurance on the storehouse, which belongs to Mr. Cullom. He suffered terseit business, and General Spinner, who prices and terms. has had twelve years' experience in the work, says they are worth ten times as much as the men for such business. "A man al ways has a reason for a counterfeit," says the General; "forty, may be, but he is wrong half the time." A woman never has a reason. She says 'tis a counterfeit because it is counterfeit, and she's always right, though she couldn't tell how she found out if she were to be hung for it.

states looks very small to us in comparison | in stock or made to org with the territory comprised by the great States of Rhode Island, Connecticut, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, and Vermont. And when one considers how vastly superior the Eastern Yanker is to everybody else, how much greater his "soul power" is, etc., one is almost forced to the conclusion that there is little use in one's living and trying to do anything unless he has been born in one of those New England States.

THE AIR-LINE RAILROAD, AGAIN .- The threatened war among the receivers of this much-litigated road seems to be at hand. At least the third, or bondholders', receiver has arrived upon the scene of action, and from all that can be learned is "girding up his loins" for the fight for the possession o the road.

This gentleman, Mr. John H. Fisher, of Brooklyn, N. Y., reached this city on Tuesday night, and yesterday afternoon filed his bond as receiver in the clerk's office of the tistrict court. What will be Mr. Fisher's first move yet remains to be seen. There is no doubt that Reilly shot Edwards in three places. Reilly he will make an earnest effort to get the possession granted to him by Judge Wood's decision, and at no distant day will address some petition to the Supreme Court for the purpose of ousting Colonel L. P. Grant. What will be the result it is impossible to foretell. - Atlanta Constitution, 24th.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Christmas in Norfolk and Portsmouth-Two Fights. [Special telegram to the Dispatch.] Norrolk, Va., December 26 .- Christmas passed off in Norfolk and Portsmonth without a murder. An altercation occurred on Church street in a bar-room, Thursday night, between the proprietor of the bar (James Reilly) and Charles E. Edwards. During the fracas was arrested, and Edwards is in a very critical condition.

E. T. Gildersleeve, chief engineer of the New York steamer George W. Elder, was violently attacked and robbed in Portsmouth on Christmas eye, at a late hour, by two negroes named Charles Scott and Bob Riddick. Mr. Gildersleeve received no less than twelve severe wounds about the head with the black-jack, and his shoulder-blade was broken. Mr. Gildersleeve fought them desperately for some time, and called for assistance. Several persons heard his cries, went to the rescue, and in all human probability saved his life.

Washington Items. WASHINGTON, December 26 .- In the case of

The United States vs. S. A. Saffron, of the Gazette, for criminal libel on Hon. J. H. Platt, of Norfolk, the counsel for the deence has given notice that he will file pleas n abatement, under the ruling in the case of the safe-burglars. This will dispose of the case for the present, but it is thought a new indictment will be procured.

There is much idle gossip here about Ferry and Sheridan being sent to New Oreans. General Emory is said to deserve the confidence of the President. He has been ordered to sustain, and will sustain, the Kellogg rule. It may be said, however, that General Emory's soldiers are not expected to interfere in street broils.

Louisiana Affairs.

NEW YORK, December 26 .- Governor Mc-Enery, in a dispatch to the Herald dated December 25:h, says: "The wrong just perpetrated by the Returning Board against the people of Louisiana, and which vitally threatens the safety and integrity of republican institutions in the United States, is a more crowning infamy than the action of the Lynch Returning Board, and surpasses even the midnight order of Durell, and would not be submitted to by any free people. Resistance to the national authority represented here by a large portion of the army and a naval fleet, sustaining a usurpation and stifling the voice of the people, has never been meditated.

"JOHN MCENERY." [Signed] NEW ORLEANS, December 26 .- Two neroes were killed here to-day in a row. In nother row several soldiers were wounded

In a fight between Dan. C. Byerly, manager of the Bulletin, and ex-Governor Warmoth, to-day, on Canal street, Byerly knocked Warmoth down with a stick and jumped on him, when Warmoth, drawing his knife, stabbed Byerly several times in the abdomen. The wounds are dangerous. Warmoth was arrested.

New York Items.

New York, December 26.-Tilton, in a card, says that he would not accept a penny, but he complains that the manner in which cross-suits are engineered will not bring Beecher's guilt in question. No business was transacted here to-day at the Cotton and Produce Exchange. A nolle prosequi was entered to-day in the suit of Judge McCue vs. C. A. Dana for

The Beecher and Tilton cross-suits, with the twisted phrases used by the lawyers, is unfit for the telegraph column.

Russian Immigrants Going West. PHILADELPHIA, December 26 .- Seven bundred and ten Mennonites, who arrived yesterday in the Vaderland from Antwerp, are now quartered at the new docks of the Red Star line, at Girard Point, and will leave for the West in a few days.

FORT MONROE, December 26 .- A young man, aged nineteen, supposed to be J. W Thomas, of Berkeley Point, near Norfolk, was found drowned to-day in Hampton creek. He had on an oil-cloth jacket, and is supposed to have been lost off some vessel.

Drowned.

Railroad Accident. ALEXANDRIA, VA., December 26 .- William Sides was crushed to-day by a railroad accident at Round Hill. No other casualties reported.

Caba.

HAVANA, December 26 .- The Diario says Senors Aldma and Agailera have purchased two steamers for the purpose of bringing fillbustering expeditions to Cuba. General Jordan is to return to the island accompanied by Agailera, and the former will assume chief command of the insur-The Diario further states that Alama and his companions intend to reestablish the Cuban junta in New York with the object of regaining the influence and power formerly held by that body and creating a situation in Cuba similar to that existing in 1869 by the commission of all possible depredations by the insurgents. It says Captain-General Concha knows much more of the plans of the insurgents than what it now publishes. It gives publicity to the foregoing because Concha dislikes mysteries. Concha is resolved, as on former occasions, to combat the enemies of Spain everywhere. A letter to the Diario reports that strong efforts are being made in Washington to obtain a recognition of the Cubans as belligerents. The letter couples the names of Alama and Collector Casey with these efforts, and says the object is to throw on the market the Cuban bonds held in Washington.
